

CHICAGO DOINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

Joseph Kandiba found guilty of killing his wife, Blanche, and punishment fixed at life imprisonment. The murder occurred at the Kandiba home, 1232 S. Ashland ave., April 13, 1911.

Mrs. Mary E. Smith, wife of Wilbur Smith, of Hutchinson, Kan., and Charles Shaffard, arrested here today on complaint of the woman's husband. Shaffard is accused of forging Smith's name to a check for $500, and Mrs. Smith with disorderly conduct.

Miss Gertrude Cooner, of Birmingham, Ala., has been missing from the Y. W. C. A. since Tuesday. She was found by policemen on Van Buren street last week hungry and penniless, just having arrived from Birmingham, and was cared for by the Y. W. C. A. Her father has sent money for her to return home. Police are searching for her.

Mrs. Louise Vermilya, confined in the county jail hospital charged with poisoning Policeman Arthur Bissonette, is in a serious condition today, and physicians give little hope for her recovery.

New arrest made in Kaufman murder case. Prisoner is a chauffeur, but police refuse to give his name. William Guttenberger, accused of the murder by Kaufman, has convinced the police he is innocent, and will probably be discharged following a preliminary hearing.

Three bandits raided restaurant at 4122 Cottage Grove ave., early today, and robbed cash register. Choked and gagged woman cashier.

Gladstone Dowie, son of founder of Zion City, has forsaken father's faith, and is studying for Episcopalian ministry.

Andrew Preuss sued for divorce by wife, who says he has not taken bath for over a year.

Mrs. Louise Ruberry, 6357 Rhodes ave., asked Judge Sabath to make her husband stop drinking. Said she could handle him all right, but she "was afraid some day I'll soak him so hard I'll hurt him."

Two negroes attempted to hold up George Giongrasso, 2107 S. Clark street, last night. Giongrasso cut loose with a couple of left jabs, and both hold ups fled.

F. A. Smith, 1552 E. 61st street threw kettle of boiling potatoes at man climbing through window and knocked him to ground. Went outside to hunt for intruder, and found man and potatoes gone.

Samuel McIntyre, switchman, crushed to death between two freight cars at 40th and Morgan streets early today.

Annie Triebichowski, Kenosha who was shot twice by her sweetheart, John Holicka, who then shot himself, says she will marry him as soon as she gets out of hospital, and he is released from jail. Cupid should put away his bow and start using a gun.

Eight members of the flock of Rev. W. A. Gustin, Church of the